

JON LAWTON

ELECTRONIC PRESS KIT

AMERICANA · BLUES · FOLK · ACOUSTIC · OAKLAND, CA

A modern singer/songwriter who makes tradition come alive.

TRADITIONAL & ORIGINAL BLUES, COUNTRY & FOLK

Jon Lawton has spent decades writing, recording, and touring blues, country, and folk, rotating through National Steel, six- and twelve-string guitars, and banjo depending on what a song calls for. His influences run from Big Bill Broonzy and John Lee Hooker through Pete Seeger and Merle Haggard, and it shows: old-style guitar and banjo technique, a plainly conversational vocal style, and songs that move easily between rags, stomps, and quieter, observational tunes.

"I don't usually watch the opening act... He killed!"

JOHN HAMMOND

"An original voice, an Americana artist with a bottomless reservoir of freshness and imagination."

MARTY ROKEACH — PROFESSOR EMERITUS, ST. MARY'S COLLEGE; COMPOSER, CONDUCTOR

ON STAGE

© John McDonald Photography

Watch: youtube.com/channel/UCeRXVL-YQaA58v9zCCUfog · Full-res photos: drive.google.com/.../jon-lawton-press-photos

BOOKING & MEDIA

littlejonny1@mac.com
510-507-1720

WEB

jonlawton.net

COMING SEPTEMBER 2026

We Got It Goin' On

Jon's next record leans all the way into the blues, cut live in the studio at Greaseland in San Jose with Kid Andersen, alongside some of the best roots musicians the Bay Area has to offer. It's a mix of blues classics and Jon's own songs, built for longtime blues heads and newcomers alike.

"I love Jon Lawton's style, taste, touch and tone."

CHRIS "KID" ANDERSEN, GUITARIST AND PRODUCER, GREASELAND STUDIOS

STAGE PLOT · TECH NEEDS

Solo Performance

- Solo performer
- 2 mic stands (1 vocal, 1 acoustic guitar mic, condenser preferred)
- 2 DI boxes (1 for banjo, 1 for A/B box for 6 & 12-string guitars)
- 1 floor monitor
- 1 low chair (no arms)
- Good down-lighting
- Minimum 1 hour setup time